ROLE OF LABOUR POLICY ANALYSIS IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL AFFAIRS OF ESTONIA

Siiri Otsmann

Labour Policy Information and Analysis Department

Tallinn, Estonia

2004

võrdsed võimalused inimväärseks eluks

sotsiaal ministeerium

sotsiaal ministeerium

- OUR AIMS
- WAYS TO ACHIEVE OUR AIMS
- NEXT STEPS

sotsiaal ministeerium

AIMS

- Main aim is to increase the role of relevant and objective information/analysis in policy making process

Also important is to disseminate more relevant and objective information on labour market policy to public, different organisations and partners

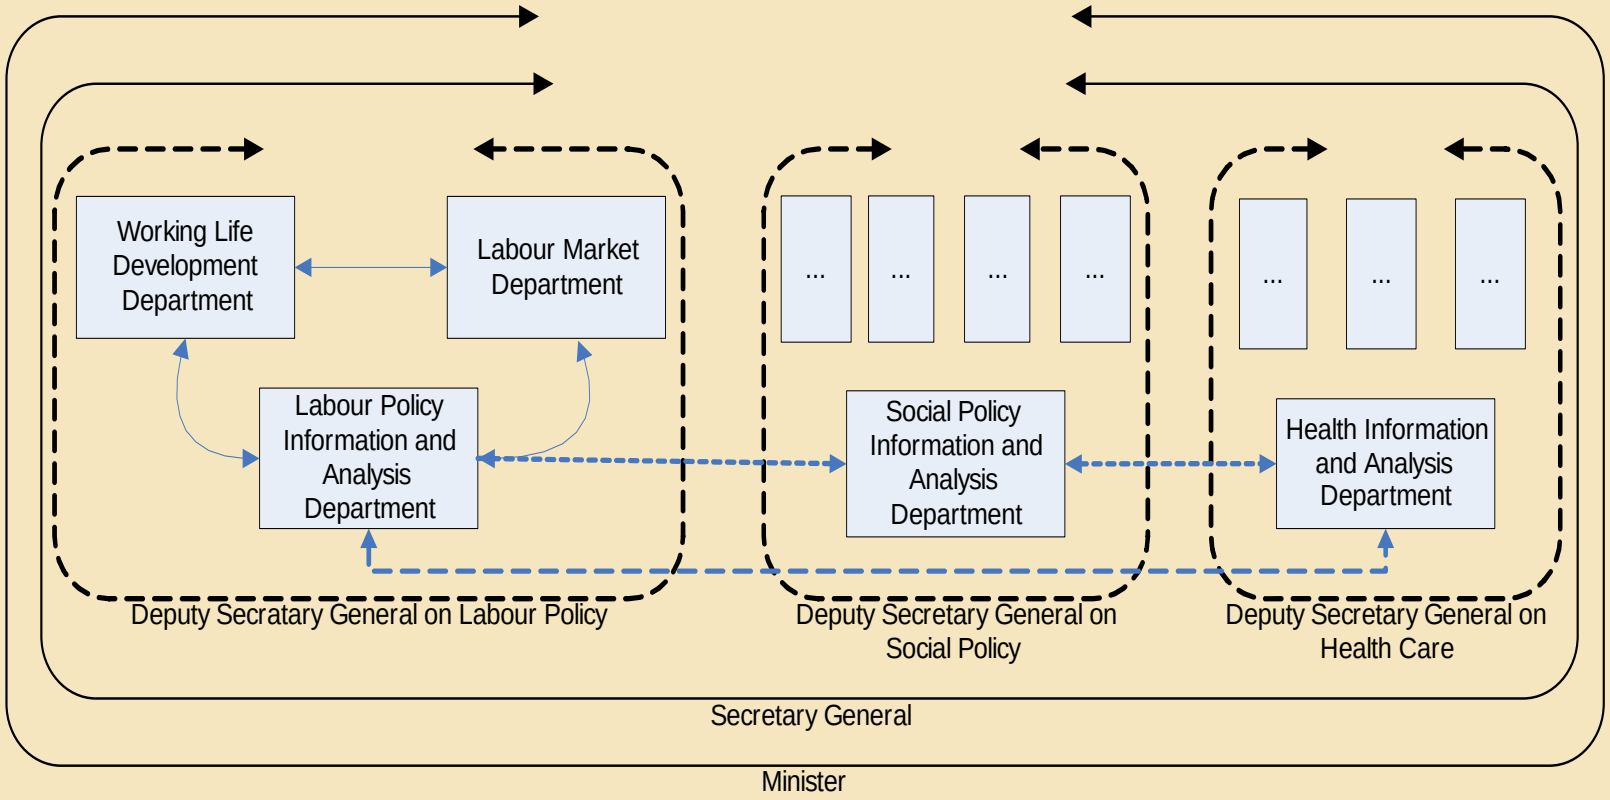
sotsiaal ministeerium

WAYS TO ACHIEVE AIMS - new structure for policy making in ministry



sotsiaal ministeerium

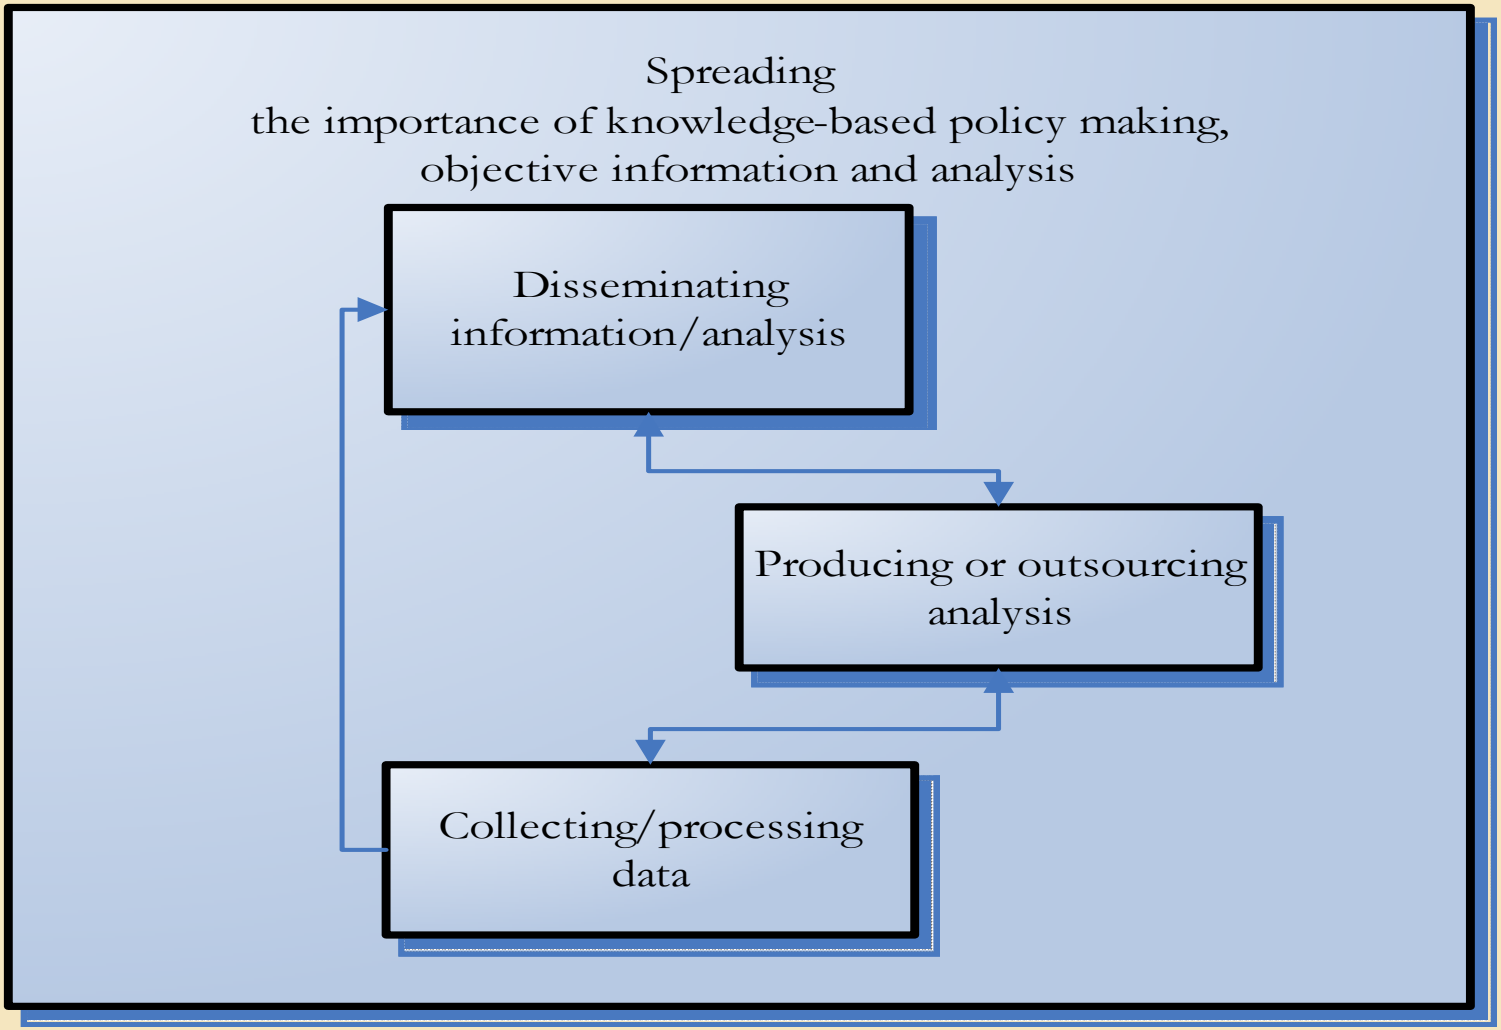
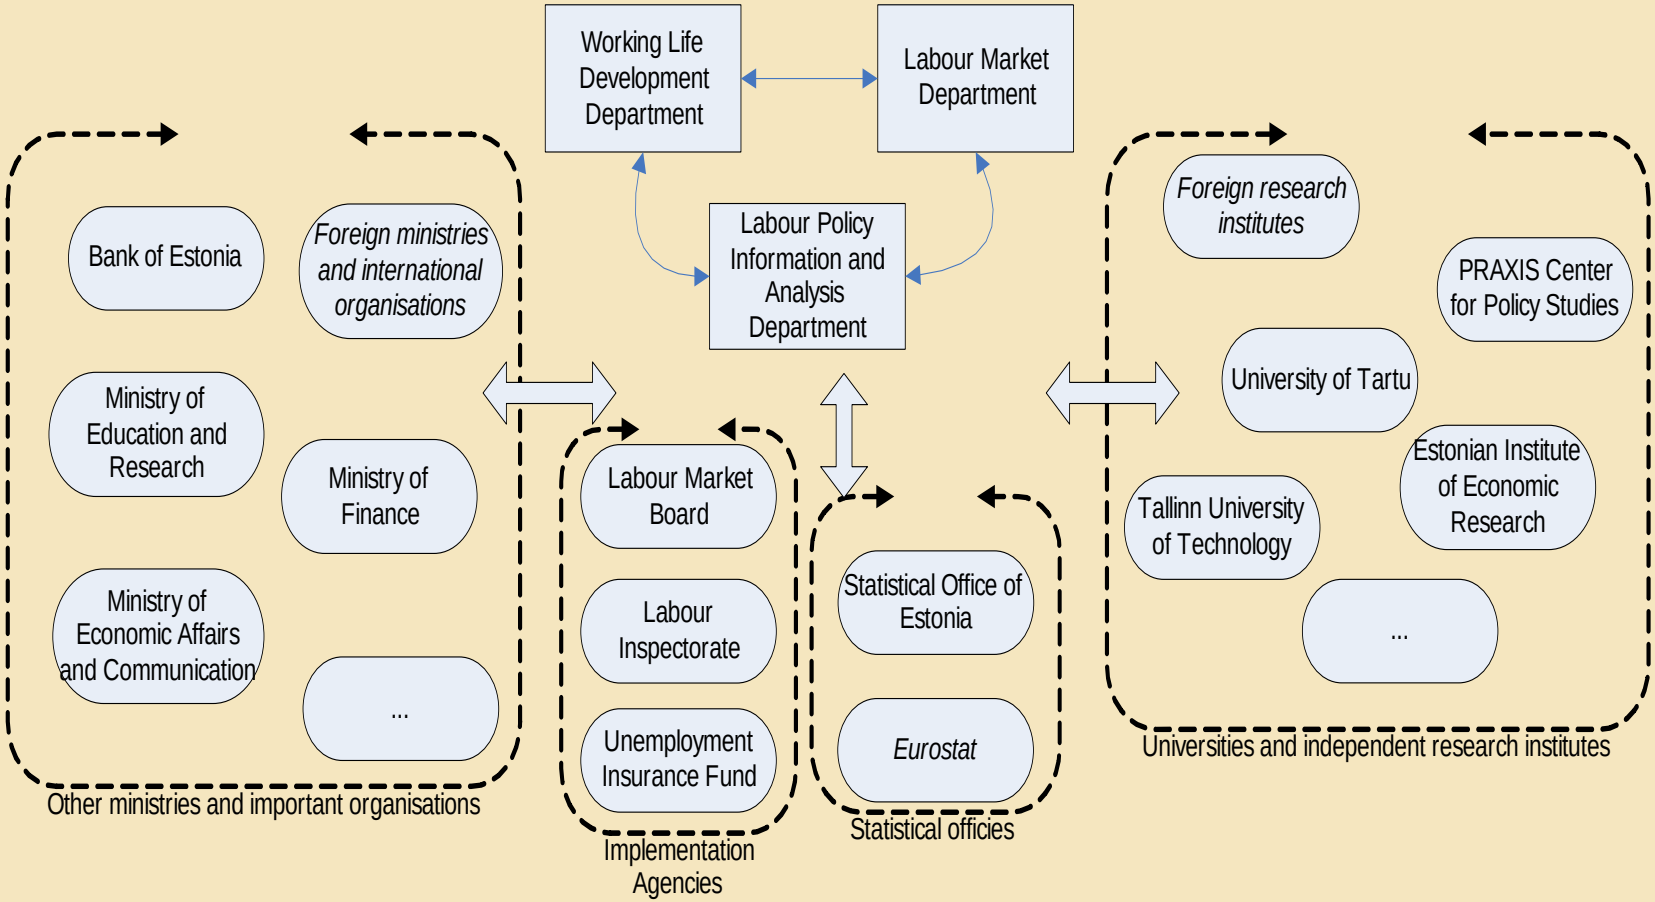
WAYS TO ACHIEVE AIMS - main tasks of Labour Policy Information and Analysis Department



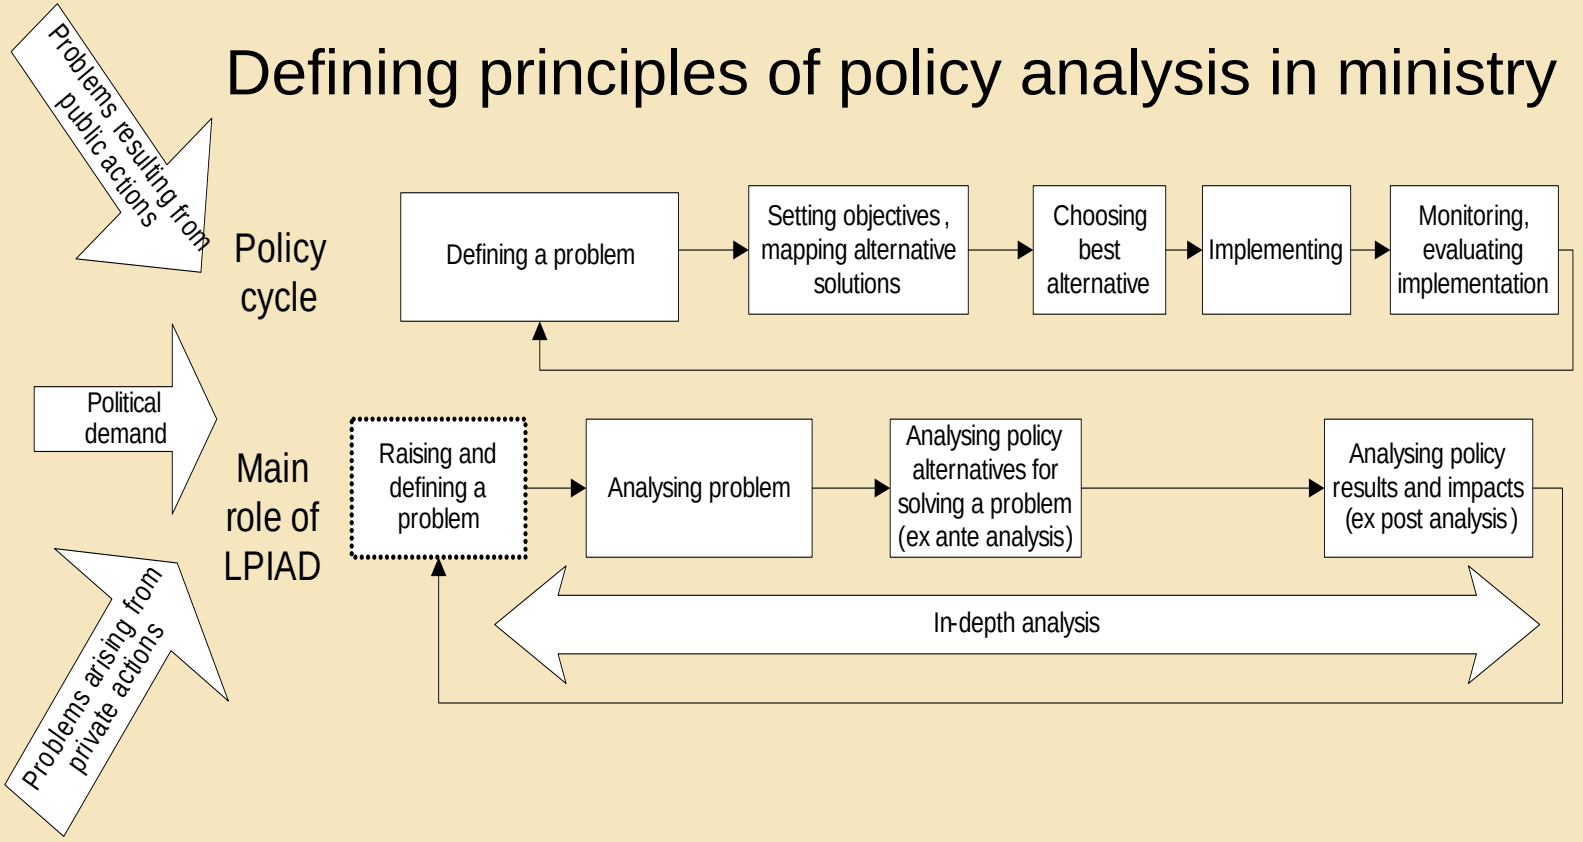
sotsiaal ministeerium

WAYS TO ACHIEVE AIMS – building co-operation networks



sotsiaal ministeerium

NEXT STEPS
producing and outsourcing analysis



NEXT STEPS
collecting/processing data

- Defining data needs for analysis, evaluation and monitoring of labour policy
- Using and improving existing data sources
  - First priority Labour Market Board, Labour Inspectorate
- Developing indicators
  - First priority policy monitoring indicators (strategic, operational, EU)

NEXT STEPS
disseminating information/analysis

- Establishing labour policy research and best practice database
- Developing web-based presentation of statistics and indicators
- Founding publication series

sotsiaal ministeerium

SUMMARY

- ROLE OF LABOUR POLICY ANALYSIS IS INCREASING IN THE MINISTRY
- CO-OPERATION/COLLABORATION IS ESSENTIAL